TIER LEVELS:

The agency that registers you for the first time, or the Iowa Sex Offender Registry office, will notify you of your TIER LEVEL as soon as it has been determined.

Your TIER LEVEL will determine how often you are required to complete verification visits to your Sheriff's Office. Tier I = annually, Tier II = biannually (twice per year), Tier III = quarterly (4 times per year). The charge(s) for which you were convicted and are registered will determine your Tier level. Any new sex offense conviction will result in a change in your TIER LEVEL. Notices, in the form of a postcard, will be sent to you 30 days in advance of each in-person verification date (Month).
